

ACWA JPIA presents

Fall Regional HR Group Meeting

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN
NOVEMBER 2 • THURSDAY • 8:30 AM - 3:30 PM

FRONTIER PROJECT AT THE CUCAMONGA VALLEY WD!
10440 ASHFORD ST. RANCHO CUCAMONGA

Arrive early to enjoy a deluxe continental breakfast and catch up with your colleagues. Program begins at 9:00am

Come and join us as we reconnect this November at the Cucamonga Valley WD. This full day event will offer you the opportunity to network with your peers, learn about important industry topics such as financial wellness, motivating and energizing employees, tips on how not to get sued in today's ever changing environment, and we will end the day with roundtable discussions on hot HR topics.

Our fall meeting is one you will want to be a part of!

Cost is $35 for materials, continental breakfast and lunch.

Register and pay by credit card in one step using the JPIA Learning Management System \(LMS\).

For assistance, please email: training@acwajpia.com

The Speakers

Diana Barragan
Assistant Vice President
Financial Wellness Consultant
PNC Bank

Diana is dedicated to partnering with organizations to deliver customized financial wellness benefits to help move their employees forward financially. These benefits include a bank-at-work program, student debt repayment, health and benefit spending accounts, retirement planning, digital and in-person financial education and more. Diana will discuss the importance of providing financial education to employees and how actionable tips on what you can do.

Renae Dupuis
Teacher, Speaker, Writer
Karyn Purvis Institute of Child
Development (KP ICD) at TCU.

Renae completed her Masters in Divinity from Fuller Theological Seminary in 2013 and is a Trainer/Facilitator for: Empowered to Connect, ACE Interface, Living Compass Community Wellness, and Making Sense of Your Worth. Renae will deliver a high energy seminar to empower participants to utilize a number of techniques to motivate employees and managers.

Robert Greenfield
General Counsel
ACWA JPIA

Robert joined the ACWA JPIA in December of 2013. As JPIA's General Counsel, Robert oversees legal compliance of the JPIA with all applicable State and Federal laws. He also provides assistance to the members through employment practices training. In complicated matters Robert provides assistance to members through the Employment Practices Hotline. Robert will deliver an engaging session on everything you need to know to stay out of court!